Macpherson Acrylic Eggshell is a quick drying alternative to conventional Eggshell. It provides a durable, washable sheen finish which will not yellow over time. The product applies easily and when you're working in confined spaces, you won't need to worry about the paint odour that comes as standard with a conventional Eggshell. Macpherson

Acrylic Eggshell covers up to 15m² per litre (depending on surface texture) and it's available in over 7000 colours including Brilliant White & Magnolia (refer to your Colour and Product Guide for details of the full colour range). Buy it now at your Macpherson stockist.
